The Capital City Club

Atlanta's most popular gathering place for business leaders since 1883, the Capital City Club's unparalleled elegance has attracted countless VIPs from movie stars to U.S. presidents. Begin your evening with cocktails in the lovely Elm Room, which fronts Peachtree Street. Then enjoy dinner in the Mirador Room, notable for its timeless beauty and collection of priceless paintings. Movie buffs will be delighted to know that the Mirador Room was completed in 1939, just in time for a star-studded celebration of the world premiere of Gone With the Wind. Now you, too, can experience the glorious history of the Capital City Club, the heart of Atlanta's social scene.
